

Quality of Student Projects

Programme Assessment Committee and HoD will conduct meeting to allocate project coordinator and programme review committee (PRC) members. Allocation of projects, domain selection and guide allocation process were well defined in prior to the students. Questionnaires were attached to identify the specialization and area of interest for allocating projects to faculties. Three reviews will be conducted under the supervision of Project committee. As per peer team suggestion, students are advised to participate in paper presentation; conference and project expos conducted by both intra and interstate events. Students got awards and certificates in project expos. Current year students were also motivated by the faculty members to publish their project works in indexed journals and various conferences.
